Dear readers,

I extend a warm welcome to the new members in the staff and also the First year students who have shown faith in our institution. At Damodars, it has always been our endeavor to equip our students not just with the academic degree but focus on the all round development of their personality. Orientation programs for the Staff and Students were organized to gear up for the new semester ahead. The teacher's incharge of various committees are now ready with their plans for execution for this academic year.
